Kaiser Breaks And May Abdicate

GAS WARNING ERECTED BY THE FRENCH

This gas warning is displayed conspicuously near the battle front. It warns the soldiers not to venture into the battle area without their masks. It reads: "Do not go over there without your gas masks!"

LATEST BULLETINS FROM THE FRONT

It seems probable that a new and mighty blow against the Teutonic armies in France will be the allies' answer to the peace proposals voiced by Austria on behalf of the central powers. From the sea to the Swiss frontier there is a tension which may forebode another development of Marshal Foch's masterly offensive. All along the battle line there have been local actions by which the allies have tried out the German positions and gained points of vantage from which to launch their next assault. In Macedonia the allied forces continue their offensive against the Bulgarians with success. Important positions have been taken and more than 3000 prisoners captured.

From Ypres to Rheims the British and French are carrying out local engagements with success. Bewteen Lens and Ypres the British have pushed forward slightly, while northwest of St. Quentin they are pressing toward Le Verguier, which is on high ground and offers a good starting point for a flanking movement north of St. Quentin. Aerial activity in the region from Laon to Metz continued intense and possibly may be the forerunner of large scale infantry operations on this front. French aviators have accounted for sixteen captive baloons and twelve enemy airplanes, while allied bombing squadrons have been drenching enemy railway junctions and other targets effectively.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

NO! NO! SAY MEN

PARIS, Sept. 17.—"No! No! No!" That is the reply of American fighting men—who have fought and been wounded and know what they are fighting for—to the Austrian proposal to talk things over.

In certain American hospitals I talked with more than a score of men who were wounded at St. Mihiel, the Vesle and at Soissons. I asked them what they thought of the Austrian peace move, from the standpoint of men doing the fighting. Of twenty-three men interviewed, all except two said: "Let's do the job first and talk afterwards,' cables a war correspondent.

GAME OF BLUFF

PARIS, Sept. 17.—Many deep thinkers see in Austria's peace move one of the cleverest bunco games the central empires have yet conspired together to spring on the allies. They believe the whole thing amounts to little more than a concerted move by Emperors Wilhelm and Charles to save their thrones by throwing the blame for continuation of the war on the allies and leading the displrited Teutonic troops to believe they must keep up the fight, however sick of the war, in order to "defend their homes from invasion by jealous and covetous enemies."

STILL KILLING WOMEN

PARIS, Sept. 17.—Six persons were killed and fifteen others injured in Sunday night's air raid over Paris, according to the lists given by the newspapers today.

One of the injured was a woman, the mother of six children. One German machine a Gotha, was brought down in the forest of Compeigne. The two aviators fled, pursued by gendarmes.

MORALE WEAKENING

WITH THE BRIISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 17.—The American victory is wiping out the St. Mihiel salient has already depressed Germany soldiers in this region.

A German under-officer, captured in the St. Quentin sector, said today that news of the American successes was withheld from the troops, but that the information was obtained through underground channels and that it seriously affected the morale of the men.

CAPTURE ARTILLERY

LONDON, Sept. 17.—German prisoners report that the Americans captured all the artillery of the German 21st division, according to dispatches from the American front today.

GREEKS SMASH BULGARS

ATHENS, Sept. 17.—Greek troops have already advanced from two to three miles on a 17 mile front in the Struma sector between the Vardar river and Lake Doiran, capturing several villages, according to a dispatch from Salonika today. The attack was a complete surprise. The Greeks lost only two officers and 10 men, while the Bulgarian losses were extremely heavy.

BOLSHEVIKIS ROUTED

PETROGRAD, Sept. 17.— American, British and French detachments are reported by the Pravda to have met the Bolshevik forces in battle on the Archangel front.

The Bolsheviki troops, after an initial success, were repulsed by British reinforcements and fled in panic.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE NEXT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—An agreement by Senate leaders to call up the women suffrage constitutional amendment for consideration in the Senate on September 26 was announced today by Senator Jones of New Mexico, chairman of the woman suffrage committee.

CIVILIZATION REFUSES HUN PLEA WITH SCORN

Kaiser Suffers Nervous Collapse And May Abdicate — Senator Lodge Flags Teuton Peace Bluff

LONDON, Sept. 17.—It was learned here this afternoon that rumors are current in border countries that the German kaiser either has abdicted or is about to abdicate.

The rumor was of the vagnest sort, but it was regarding some trouble in the Hohenzollern family.

There is absolutely no confirmation of it here. One report was that the entire Hohenzollern dynasty had or would abdicate.

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The kaiser has suffered a nervous breakdown and is very despondent.

President Wilson's Reply.

"The government of the United States feels that there is only one reply which it can make to the suggestion of the imperial Austro-Hungarian government. It has repeatedly and with entire candor stated the terms upon which the United States would consider peace and can and will entertain no proposal for a conference upon a matter concerning which it has made its position and purpose so plain."

Allies Will Refuse

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The allies probably will make a concerted reply, refusing the Austrian proposal along the lines of President Wilson's note, it was learned from reliable cources here this afternoon.

....WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Unqualified endorsement of President Wilson's rejection of Austria's proposal for secret and non-binding peace discussions was given in the Senate today by Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican floor leader and ranking minority member of the foreign relations committee.

Senator Lodge said the President's prompt and curt refusal was right and wise, and that he was sure it would receive universal approval.

America's position is becoming so plain, the Senator declared, that even the central powers soon will begin to understand it. Germany, having brought unnumbered woes upon an innocent world and appealed to the lust of conquest, he concluded, "she shall not now resort to talk and bargain for a decision. We mean to put her in physical bonds."

He said he believed the President's action would put an end to loose and feeble talk helpful to Germany about Austro-Hungarian peace offers.

"When Prussian militarism is crushed and the Germans throw up their hands," said Senator Lodge, then the United States and her allies will tell them the terms of peace which they are to accept.

GOOD START MADE FOR BELGIAN RELIEF

A good start was made toward breezing up the Belgian Relief work yesterday, when Miss Eleanor Rice, of the State Committee, spoke to several concourses of school children and workmen in Richmond. Miss Rice was agreeably surprised at the high school, for she did not ask for subscriptions, when the boys and girls insisted on donating right then and there, and did so to the amount of $42.31.

Mrs. Wm. Boone has been entertaining Miss Rice, and brought her into the News office to get acquainted last evening—and, say! If Mrs. Boone brings around any more such pretty ladies as that we will sure go broke!

The committee was enlarged yesterday by the addition of Mayor Lane, Miss Nettie Windrem and Miss Caroline Bedwell. Next week the committee will get busy and see what can be done for the poor Belgian mothers and babies that are going to freeze and starve this winter unless they get help.

Pythian Sisters To Entertain At Whist

Another of those enjoyable whist parties will be held when on tomorrow evening the Richmond Temple, No. 86, Pythian Sisters will give the second of their series of whist parties in Pythian Castle.

A choice of a $2.00 merchandise prize or $2.00 in Thrift Stamps will be given for every five tables and at the conclusion of the game the final prize will be given, which is going to be a surprise and well worth trying for. The Pythian Sisters are excellent entertainers and no doubt a large crowd will be present.

MRS SCHERRUBLE DEPARTS

Mrs. Myrtle Scherrable, well and favorably known as an expert stenographer and willing church worker, departed last night for the home of her parents at Portland, Oregon. Her husband is at Vancouver, Washington, in war work there and so Mrs. S. will spend the coming winter at her old home, where her little daughter has been visiting for some months. She will be sadly missed in both business and church circles and whenever she want to come back there will always be jobs open for her. She has been with the law firm of Hall & Jacobs lately, and Miss Huzika takes her place there.

LOCAL HOUSING CONDITION GETS FEDERAL ATTENTION

Committee Appointed To Canvass City And Report—Citizens Urged To Assist In Housing Men

A meeting was called of the business men by Mr. Crary, in the Chamber of Compierce rooms in the Elk's building, yesterday evening at 5:30 to organize a housing committee for this community. Mr. R. A. Pettitt with offices in San Francisco is the Pacific Coast manager of the United States housing corporation, and is in charge of a government construction in the West. Mr. Mark Cohn, field agent of the bureau of Industrial Housing and Transportation, from San Francisco was present and spoke on establishing a placement bureau here.

After explaining the work that was to be done a committee was elected to carry out the work. The committee was asked by Mr. Cohn to make a canvass of the city, extending into San Pablo and other near points and secure a complete list of all the vacant houses, rooms for rent and also the names of people who will open up their homes and rent a room to a war worker. Cards to be furnished to these committee workers to be filled out by citizens, who will take a roomer and where possible boarder. A house to house canvass will be started by the Mobilized Women within a few days, and likely tomorrow. Mr. Cohn arrived in Richmond at 12 o'clock and by 5 o'clock had talked with the women and men and found Richmond was full of energetic willing workers.

The Newspapers will co-operate and posters will be placed around the city to explain the necessity of housing room for the many workers who have to live elsewhere yet work here.

If the proper housing room can not be obtained it is possible that the government will purchase property and build rooming houses for the working men.

After the meeting committees were elected as follows: C. E. Clark, chairman; Warren McBride, Capt; Chas. Donnelly, Electric Railways; H. A. Stiver, Steam Railways; J. A. Waldy, Office Manager; C. E. Crary, Banks; Chas. E. Renwick, Builders; E. W. Maynard and Lunsford, Manufacturing and War Work; A. C. Burdiet, Merchants; Dr. Chas. R. Blake, Sanitation; J. Thornton, F. W. Heckman, E. Roiff, Joseph Lownsley, Labor; Mrs. C. E. Gibson, Women's Mobilized Army; Paul Edwards, Richmond Ind. Commission; F. J. Hulanski, J. F. Galvin, Frank Huland, George Ryan, Editors; E. W. Brewer, Non Committee and Judge R. H. Latimer.

Those present at the meeting were: Dr. Blake, Crary, Donnelly, Mark C. Cohn, Judge Hall, Pulse, Hull, J. A. Waldy, A. C. Burdict,

Telephone Co. Is Stingy

Constant complaint is going up about the poor service by the telephone company, and the management explains it by stating that help is constantly leaving to work elsewhere.

Certainly it is leaving to work elsewhere. Why shouldn't it? Elsewhere—most anywhere—the girls can get a decent living wage for their work, and the telephone company never paid a living wage in its life. That is the secret of the whole trouble.

The service is poor, and that is the reason. New and inexperienced girls are continually being put on, and by the time they learn how to make a telephone connection they are offered higher pay to work at other occupations, and away they go, naturally enough and more green hands take their place.

The Government has taken over the wires, and should now persue a different policy, but whether it will or not is another question. The Government is mighty poor pay, itself, if anybody should ask you. For years and years its mail carriers have walked this legs off ten hours a day for $75 a month, and only get $100 now.

Salvation Army Tag Day

Tomorrow is the great day when Richmond is to go over the top and produce the $1772 which is its part of the Contra Costa county quota for the Salvation Army. It will be "Tag Day" all day, and many of our enterprising and patriotic women and girls are going to be out with their coffee pots and get the coin.

That will be fine. All that is necessary to get this $1772 is to get out and go after it! The people of Richmond are certainly going to donate liberally for coffee and doughnuts for the boys in the trenches, for that puts pep into them in more ways than one. The hot coffee and doughnuts does it, and the thought that the folks at home are behind them does it a lot more!

The committee and volunteer women workers for "Tag Day" are to meet today at the Western States Gas and Electric offices, on Sixth street, opposite the post-office, which is headquarters from 2 p. m. until 5, for organization and instruction.

The Editor Says

TOO MUCH RED TAPE

We hoped that when the Democrats came into power they would unwind and cut out about a million miles of red tape in government affairs, but they haven't done it, and now the war has made it ten times worse.

It is getting so now that anyone in business has no time to attend to his business or make a living for his family, because he has to put in half his time making out dozens and scores of fool reports for the Government, for the State and for others who also feel called upon to butt in and ask all about one's private, personal business and every other affair. It is getting to be a nuisance and a big one, and this office for one is getting sore about it.

Reports that used to be annual, if at all, are now monthly, and some of them weekly, and if kept up with would entail an extra bookkeeper at big salary, and all to mighty little purpose, as far as we can dope it out, except to keep an army of swivel-chair draft slackers in fat salaried jobs.

There should be common sense in all things, and this report business has gone all out of the bounds of reason. Each one of them are pages long, go into everything in a fellow's business from the cradle to the grave, much of which is downright silly. A thousand commissions and departments need cleaning out with a four-tined fork.

The following dirty little fling at President WiWlson is from the Albanq, N. Y. Times, and is on a par with many like it:

"When a man is out of work and his children hungry, his depression is 'purely psychological,'' and all he needs is a little more legislation.'' Alle he needs is the manhood and gumption to get out and rustle a job and go to work at it. There are more jobs than men to fill them right now, all over the United States and there is no excuse whatever for any man's children being hungry, which is another fact that is not psychological either.

An Illinois congressman who would shine in the hay field, has introduced a bill penalizing any public official who makes speeches or delivers lectures for pay—$10,000 or imprisonment for two years. Let's have a law regulating every man on kissing his own wife. How do such men manage to get elected to congress?

A Chicago burglar has outwitted a Chicago widow. He took off his shoes, entered her apartment and got away with $112. As a rule, however, Chicago widows generally trap the burglars and marry them.

The fact that places become so dangerous that angels fear to tread therein doesn't seem to leave the situation any better than standing room for those who make a specialty of rushing in.

It is said that the king of Bulgaria is suffering from a mental strain. We fancy that all royal mental strains are causing considerable suffering at present.

About the biggest fool we know of is the one who thinks it is either smart or manly to get drunk.

MUST BE UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER

"We have been ready for a year to give up the St. Mihiel salient," said the Kaiser, and the world for once agrees with his utterance, having observed for many years that any burglar is willing to give up anything he cannot carry off.

Had the Crown Prince (or the able generals whose credit he steals) been able, however, to sweep past Verdun, the Kaiser would long since have "Germanized" St. Mihel as thoroughly as he has "Germanized" Antwerp and Louvain.

And even while the Kaiser protesting, in his latest peace offensive, that Germany did not want France Belgium, or indemnities, the Kaiser's men, in their thorough Germany way, carried off all the able-bodied males in their retreat before Pershing's victorious army.

It is this utter inability to observe the smallest decencies that reveals the German character unchanged from the day of the "scrap of paper" protest, and from the day the Lusitania medals were struck off in readiness to commemorate the murder of the women and children on that ship.

Peace with Germany will come when the German nation, like its weakening soldiers, grovels on its knees and cries "Kamerad," and another "unconditional surrender" will be written down in history.

The German is not yet beaten. The Allies donot expect to end the war before next year. Our casualties have been large and will be larger. Our sacrifices have been great and must be greater. Victory will be won one step at a time.

The next step todward Victory, and the one whose success depends, not upon our army, but upon civilian America, is the Fourth Liberty Loan. It must be met promptly for the glory of the United States and the inspiriting of our men abroad.

The five-column daily installment of the kaiser's American dentist show us that the stories that have come to us of the kaiser's war activities must have been untrue. The kaiser has spent about four-fifths of his time telling things to his dtist.

There are two drives now on in Richmond which simply must not be overlooked, because they are both so full of merit. One is the Salvation tag day tomorrow and the other is for the relief of the Belgian mothers and babies. Will Richmond respond? It certainly will.

While blaming President Wilson for everything else in sight, why not give him credit for the crop of 900,000000 bushels of wheat now being harvested? There is as much logic in one as the other.

A dispatch says there is more whisky stored in Kentucky now than there was in the whole country ten years ago. Sure. Ten years ago they did not store it, they drank it.

The greatest friend the working classes of America have today is President Woodrow Wilson.

War map styles are changing almost daily, and the new offerings are much more attractive than the old.

Civilization Refuses Hun Plea for Peace

In no other way can the world be made safe against German wars of conquest. In no other way can we justify our entrance into the war and our sacrifice of our best and bravest. Until complete victory is reached on German soil any negotiations or discussion with our enemies would mean that the war was lost, our sacrifices in vain and our high purpose defeated.

$47,850 COMING UP FOR RICHMOND SCHOOLS

The first apportionment of school funds from the State to Contra Costa county for the year has been announced by Edward Hyatt, state superintendent of public instruction. The sum of $55,802.50 has been apportioned to the elementary schools and $8,712.14 to the high schools of the county. Of the latter the Richmond Union High school, with 238 students, will receive the sum of $2,244.14.

The state will give the county this year on the basis of $250 per teacher for the elementary schools and it is expected that the county apportionment will be something in the neighborhood of $300, making a total for the first apportionment of $550 per teacher. This will bring in the sum of something like $47,850 for the first portion of the school year to the schools of Richmond.

Rev. D. W. Calfee, humane officer, left last night for Stockton to attend the Methodist conference for the northern section of California.

You will please pardon a slight shortness of other reading matter in the News for a few days, as City Treasurer Ira Vaughn is editing a whole page all by himself, and he is some strenuous editor when he gets started. He generally starts out with a big WHEREAS!

Mrs. Smith is much interested in social insurance, and we have promised to read up on it and enlighten the constituency. It is something we have not had time as yet to dig down into. It sounds a trifle Socialistic, but it may be a mighty good thing, at that.

Emmett C. Smyth wires his father from Camp Johnson, Florida, that he has gained his commission as a lieutenant in the army there, and of course Mr. Smyth is highly pleased at the good news. And so are we all. Richmond boys will rise to the top. You just can't keep 'em down.

This scribe is on so many war work committees and things like that he can't keep track of only about half of them, so if he don't show up at meetings sometimes, just please phone and he will come running. Right now we are interested in coffee and doughnuts for the Salvation Army workers, and warm clothing and something to eat for Belgium mothers and babies.

Salvation Army To Have Tag Day

wanted, and wanted bad. Will you help? If so, be on hand this afternoon, and volunteer for work next day. Each worker must furnish a coffee pot, if possible, for Thursday, to put the money in.

Everybody will be asked to donate anywhere from two-bits up, the sky being the limit. Alpha Lodge of Masons started the ball rolling last night with a donation of $50, which Councilman Jim Long now has in his inside pocket.

The Four Minute men are to get busy this evening, also, and Fred Newsome will talk at the two east side theaters, while J. N. Long unlimbers his rapid-fire machine gun vocabulary at the Point theater and at the tent show.

Say, folks, this is a good thing—push it along! The Salvation Army girls are right square on the firing line and in the trenches, making the hot coffee and hot dougnuts, pies and the like for our fighting boys! Surely we can help furnish the ingredients!

Other towns everywhere are responding nobly, and Richmond will do the same. It has the sanction of the Red Cross and the Government and is of great merit.

COUNTY COUNCIL MUST GUARD FOOD

That Judge R. H. Latimer and the County Council of Defense are to be held responsible for the safety of all food stuffs stored in this county is the gist of an important communication which was read before the board of supervisors. The letter was from C. C. Moore, secretary of the State Council of Defense and was explicit in its instructions.

The letter sets forth that all such stores must be kept under guard and that precautions must be taken to preserve them from theft and fire.

A Famous Play Is Now Showing

The double standard of morals, the cruelty and brutality practiced upon prisoners by Russian officers in the days of the monarchy, are the central notes of "Resurrection," the powerful new Paramount picture, starring Pauline Frederick, which has just been released and will be shown at the Richmond Theater today and tomorrow. The central figure of this great story by Count Leo Tolstoy is Katusha, a beautiful half Gypsy Russian girl, who is betrayed by a prince. In accordance with the custom of the old regime of Russia, she becomes a woman of the streets and through an accident is finally sentenced to imprisonment in Siberia for a crime of which she is innocent.

Local Housing Gets Federal Attention

President Merchants Association, Councilman Ogborne, Ben Schapro, Maynard, Superintendent Giant Powder Works; W. A. McBride, Superintendent Hercules, C. E. Clark, J. A. Long, Paul Edwards, Secretary Industrial Commission; H. W. Hanna, Standard Oil.

The need of Richmond for immediate action on housing is recognized by all, and yet comparatively little has been done about solving the problem. Committees have been appointed before, and building and loan associations talked of. The Chamber of Commerce took it up, and Warren McBride came down here from Pinole and plead with tears in his eyes that we do something about building houses for the thousands of men to be put to work there. All to no purpose. No public effort has been made. What houses have been built have been put up by private individuals. In the mean time thousands upon thousands of men have been employed in Richmond and adjacent territory, and they are scattered all the way from Martinez to San Francisco, Oakland, San Leandro and Haywards.

It is to be hoped that now the Government is calling attention to the conditions, something may be done.

Richmond Club Hold Meeting

A meeting was held by the Richmond Club Monday afternoon, conducted by Mrs. Clara Wilson, head of the civic section. The chief topic of discussion was social insurance, presented by Mrs. Kate Smith. She explained that the Social Insurance Amendment was an enabling act by which the state legislature should be empowered to pass a social insurance act, and cited instances to show the value of such insurance.

Preceding the meeting the French section spent a half hour learning the English and French words and music of the Marseillaise.

Next Monday will be spent at Red Cross work, under the direction of Mrs. C. M. McCullough.

Oakland Is Iniquitous

Oakland again faces the prospect of being barred to soldiers and sailors, this time on direct orders from Washington.

Lieut. Cole, in charge of the provost guard, has received from Washington a letter containing startling information regarding the moral condition of Oakland. The latter is known to have named one park resort and to have ordered it closed unless moral conditions were improved.

The letter also contained a long list of names of soldiers and sailors arrested recently in an intoxicated condition or in company with immoral women. The list is said to be far larger than that of any other city on the coast.

One park resort was declared to be a gathering place for immoral women who solicit enlisted men, while liquor can be easily obtained in many places, Lieut. Cole declared.

He stated that an investigation he is about to make will result in revelations of a most startling nature. Several prominent people will be involved in disclosures, and private families where enlisted men have secured drink may be exposed.

Lieut. Cole admitted that his advices from Washington were of such a startling nature that soldiers and sailors may be barred from the city unless Oakland is immediately cleaned up.
